

1775

Protestants of Germany
adapted the Gregorian Cal.

1775

1912 Dates J-BK

Charleston, S.C. was a chief city and their important seaport of the United States.

May 12, 1775

1912 Dates J-BK

CROWN POINT

After the capture of Fort TICONDEROGA, Col. Seth WARNER, with a small force of Americans made an attack on Crown Point, N.Y. on Lake Champlain. As the fort was defended by only 12 men, these were quickly overpowered and the place occupied by the Americans.

Oct 19, 1775

1912 Dates J-BK

Fort Chambly

With the assistance of some of the Canadians, Montgomery determined to capture Ft. Chambly north of St. John's in Canada. Under cover of darkness, the Americans floated cannon down the river past St. John's and with little resistance the garrison at Fort Chambly surrendered 10/19/1775. A very large supply of ammunition, furskins, and food was given over to the Americans

1775

1912 Dates J-BK

(1756-1861) RALPH FARNHAM.

Last survivor of the Battle of Bunker Hill. He was first white settler of ACTON, MAINE.

Oct 1860, a public concert was given in his honor at Boston.

He lived to age of 104 yrs 9 months, and 19 days.

Apr 19, 1775

CONCORD, Mass.

At the outbreak of the Amer. Revolution a skirmish occurred at Concord, Mass. when an Army of Englishmen entered the town and began to destroy the supplies which had not been carried away to safety by the inhabitants. A small detachment, which had been left to guard the bridge was attacked by double their number of Americans and before they were ordered to retreat toward Lexington, several lives had been lost on both sides.

1775 - 1783

U.S. Revolutionary War
American Colonies over England

1775 Battle of Lexington, Concord.

1775 Battle of Bunker Hill

1777 Battle of Saratoga

1781 Battle of Yorktown.

Treaty of Paris 1783

1775

1912 Dates J-BK

Battle of BUNKER HILL (Breed's Hill)

Rescued by American Army
after skirmishes at Lexington and attempts to fortify Charlestown precipitated

Apr 18, 1775

Paul Revere's Ride

Lexington; Concord; Mass.

In April 1775 British Gen. in Boston decided to march his troops to villages of Lexington & Concord to seize Patriot leaders and capture their weapons

Paul Revere, a Boston silversmith learned of British Plans. Apr 18, He set out on horseback. Through moonlight night Revere galloped, spreading the Alarm.

"In Medford, I awaked the Captain of the Minutemen." "and after that, I alarmed almost every house, until I got to Neponseton". There Revere warned two important Patriot leaders, Samuel Adams and John Hancock, that the British were coming. They escaped.

Henry Wadsworth Longfellow wrote the poem.

1737-1789

1912 Dates J-BK

ETHAN ALLEN

American soldier, leader of the "Green Mountain Boys". Famous for his capture of Fort Ticonderoga (1775) where he forced the commander to surrender "in the name of the Great Jehovah and the Continental Congress".
He was taken prisoner near Montreal
(1775) and sent to England.
He was sent back as prisoner to HALIFAX

then to New York where he was released (1778).

He became a Lieutenant Colonel of the Continental Army in Vermont